

Building Bridges with South Korea

Luxembourg and South Korea celebrate 60 years of diplomatic ties in 2022. On 6 July 2022, Luxembourg for Finance (LFF) organised a livestream event, sponsored by our firm, which looked at how the strong bridge that already exists between both countries can be reinforced even further, by diving into the sphere of financial services.

The event touched on current key topics in financial services, with panels and keynotes on private equity, sustainable finance, globalising investment funds and the effect of regulation on Fintech internationalisation.

Partner Xavier Le Sourné moderated a panel on “Globalising funds for global investors”.
