

Elvinger Hoss Prussen supports Aide Internationale of the Luxembourg Red Cross in their response to the victims of the armed conflict in Ukraine.

“Underneath each armed conflict lie countless individual tragedies”, says Manou Hoss, Managing Partner of our firm and President of the Luxembourg City chapter of the Red Cross. “It is therefore important to play our part in getting help to wherever it is needed the most.”

“The Luxembourg Red Cross has been present in Ukraine since 1992 and in Donetsk since 2014,” explains Myriam Jacoby, country manager in Luxembourg. The Luxembourg Red Cross is calling for donations for their emergency response to support the victims to cope with the worst repercussions.
