

Elvinger Hoss Prussen's Management Board is renewed under the leadership of Manou Hoss

The Luxembourg law firm Elvinger Hoss Prussen has appointed its partners Sophie Laguesse and Katia Panichi as members of the Management Board. In this role, they support Manou Hoss, Managing Partner and Head of the Management Board, and form together a strong team which will lead the firm in its continuous growth.

"I'm very pleased to welcome Sophie Laguesse and Katia Panichi, two highly valued and long-standing partners, as the two new members of the Management Board. They both have been leading the way in their field of expertise and will use this experience to drive forward the strategic development of Elvinger Hoss Prussen."
