

LFF – China Finance Forum

As part of the Luxembourg for Finance (LFF) China Finance Forum on 11-12 May, Counsel Charlotte Chen was a panellist on a session entitled “Access Channels to Chinese Capital Markets”. The panel explored recent developments in Chinese capital markets, which continue to internationalise, with new policy changes designed to simplify and optimise access for international investors.

Luxembourg has played a key role in this progressive opening and continues to support it with its various investment structures.

The China Finance Forum as a whole, focused on the ongoing readjustment of the relationship between China, the EU and the US. It explored this complex environment in which global investors find themselves operating today, as well as delving into depth on specialist financial topics in terms of market access, investment trends and ESG developments in China.
