

Luxembourg telematics specialist SkyCom S.à r.l. combines with r2p Tracking ApS to become EcoMobility

Elvinger Hoss Prussen advised Claude Lenert, founder of SkyCom S.à r.l., a Luxembourg based telematics specialist on the sale of the company to Alder, a Nordic investment fund with a strong mission and track record in developing sustainable technology companies. SkyCom S.à r.l. and r2p Tracking ApS, a Danish telematics company, were acquired by Alder to join forces and become EcoMobility. We advised Claude Lenert on all legal aspects of the transaction including corporate, employment, real estate as well as IP/IT and GDPR matters.

The team was led by Thierry Kauffman (Partner) and Ben Reckinger (Associate) with assistance of Florence Apostolou (Partner), Pierre Elvinger (Partner) and Lukas Adam (Associate) on employment law matters, Michel Nickels (Partner) and Claudia Cireneu (Associate) on real estate matters and Emmanuèle de Dampierre (Counsel) on IP/IT and GDPR matters.

For any further information please contact us or visit our website at www.elvingerhoss.lu.

The information contained herein is not intended to be a comprehensive study or to provide legal advice and should not be treated as a substitute for specific legal advice concerning particular situations.

We undertake no responsibility to notify any change in law or practice after the date of this newsletter.