

Macquarie Asset Management has held the final close of Macquarie Infrastructure Partners V (MIP V).

Elvinger Hoss Prussen provided legal assistance to Macquarie Asset Management in the setup of MIP V, Macquarie Asset Management's sixth Americas-focused, unlisted infrastructure fund, reaching $6.9bn in commitments. MIP V continues the investment strategy of the MIP platform, which spans nearly two decades of local operational expertise and long-standing sector relationships in the Americas. Consistent with previous vintages, MIP V will seek to invest in high-quality infrastructure assets and will be primarily focused on the transportation, communications, waste management, utilities and energy sectors.

The team was led by partner Thibaut Partsch, assisted by senior associate Jean-Thomas Pradillon and associates Darina Mohamad and Antranig Kevorkian.
