

The New Copyright Directive finally transposed into Luxembourg law

On 1 April 2022, Luxembourg enacted a new law aiming at transposing into Luxembourg law the Directive 2019/790 on copyright and related rights in the Digital Single Market adopted on 17 April 2019, known as the “New Copyright Directive”.

The authors’ rights regime is amended as from 9 April 2022 in view of a better balance in the relationships between the various players of the Luxembourg market regarding the use and exploitation of works and protected content.

For more information on this law, please read here.

For any further information please contact us or visit our website at www.elvingerhoss.lu.

The information contained herein is not intended to be a comprehensive study or to provide legal advice and should not be treated as a substitute for specific legal advice concerning particular situations.

We undertake no responsibility to notify any change in law or practice after the date of this newsletter.